

Grounded by our shared belief in the Army values, we are a band of brothers and sisters, placing mission first, never accepting defeat, never quitting and never leaving a fallen comrade. Our interdependence and shared respect among comrades, frames who we are as a Team, an Army. A Team who finds sexual assault reprehensible and beyond toleration. Those who commit assaults hurt a member of our team and they wound our Army. This criminal act is cowardly and damaging to the very moral fiber that gives our Army its innermost strength.

As Soldiers, proud members of our Team, we are duty bound to Intervene, Act, and Motivate others to stop sexual assaults and the sexually offensive language and gestures that create an environment friendly to abuse.

To join your fellow Soldiers in combating this crime, visit the Army's Sexual Assault Prevention and Response website. Discover how you can take action to prevent this crime before it happens to another Soldier.
